

INSTRUCTIONS FOR TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES
EFFECTIVE JANUARY 5, 2005

The United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware has arranged for parties to participate by telephonic appearance in hearings using CourtCall, an independent conference call company.

Under no circumstances may any participant record or broadcast the proceedings conducted by the Bankruptcy Court.

I. POLICY GOVERNING TELEPHONIC APPEARANCES

Local counsel must appear in person in all matters before the Court.

Telephonic appearances are allowed in all matters before the Court except the following:

1. Trials and evidentiary hearings - all counsel and all witnesses must appear in person;
2. Chapter 11 status conferences - debtor and debtor's counsel must appear in person, other parties in interest may appear telephonically;
3. Chapter 11 confirmation hearings - debtor, debtor's counsel, and all objecting parties must appear in person;
4. Hearings on reaffirmation agreements - debtor must appear in person;
5. Any matter designated by the Court as one requiring a personal appearance.

No telephonic appearance will be allowed unless it is made through CourtCall pursuant to the procedures set forth in Section II.

Parties filing a motion, application or other pleading, including, without limitation, an objection or response thereto, may participate by telephonic appearance. Any party not submitting a pleading, but interested in monitoring the Court's proceedings, may participate by telephonic appearance in "listen-only" mode.

If an individual schedules a telephonic appearance and then fails to respond to the call of a matter on the calendar, the Court may pass the matter or may treat the failure to respond as a failure to appear. Individuals making use of the conference call service are cautioned that they do so at their own risk.

To ensure the quality of the record, the use of car phones, cellular phones, speaker phones, or phones in other public places is prohibited. Each time you speak, you must identify yourself for the record. Do not place the call on hold at any time. When the Judge informs the participants that the hearing is completed, you may disconnect.
